ASCEND

ENGLISH AWARENESS & SKILL TEST (EAST) - 2024

Time: 2 hours	i play ner	C	lass	: VII	A III	(V)		Full Mar	MARKET MARKET PROBLEM OF THE BEST PARTY.
NAME		This is				(avi	Ph.	No	swa Na B
SCHOOL								Hoy Bunz	dog ara g
	Roll / Cen				28001		No).
N.B. Answer all the Qu for spelling mistake, un	estions in atidiness a	the and b	space	e pro	video writi	d. Ma ng.	rks wil	l be deduc	ted
Signature of the Invigilator	Section	A	В	С	D	Е	Total	Signatu	ire of the
rigital di Soj Tito Etting	Marks	30	15	20	25	10	100	Examiner	Scrutinizer
Yes the magnesus no	Marks obtain
Do as directed: (a) Keep your locality cle Ans:	an. (State	the fi	ınctio	on of	the se	enten	ce)	[1×26=	520
(b) I cannot understand _ coming. (Fill with the	options g	iven)
(c) I have	friend	s, bu	t they	give	me_			suppor	Divide (i.t
(few, little) (Use the r	ight word	in rig	ht sp	ace)					Rai should
(d) Somebody is knocking	g at the do	or. (I	denti	fy an	d nar	ne the	e prono	un in the sea	ntence)
Ans:

(e)	He is	great poet but not	Shakespeare. (Insert articles in the blanks)
(f)	Have you put it sentence)	in your pocket? (Pick o	out the transitive or intransitive verb in the
An	s:
(g)	He played a fre	aky play. (Find out the	cognate object in the sentence and write it)
An	s:
(h)	I wish she	(will / ca	n / should) not play her wireless so loudly.
	(Choose the con	rrect alternative)
(i)	Did you think y	/ou	(were seeing / have seen / had seen) her some	where before? (Choose t	the correct verb to fill the blank)
(j)	Whenform of the veri	you b "see")	your friend again? (see) (use suitable
(k)	Raju is fond of	playing tennis. (Say wh	ether bold word is participle or gerund and how it is used)
Ans	3:
(1)	The old man is	weak. He cannot do har	d work. (Combine the sentences by using infinitive)
Ans	· ·
	Arun as well as with the options		(are / is / have) on a tour. (Fill the gap
(n)	Divide the swee	etsth	ne two men. (Fill in the gap with preposition)
(o)	Rai should be a	shamed	her conduct. (Fill in the gap with preposition)
			that one. (Put proper conjunction in the blank)

(q) We went there when she was unwell. (Point out the conjunction and state whether it is coordinating or subordinating)
Ans:
(r) Shut the door, Robin. (Turn the sentence into assertive)
Ans:
(s) All must surrender to death. (Turn the sentence into negative)
Ans:
(t) My Pocket has been picked. (Change the voice of the sentence)
Ans:
(u) He told a lie intentionally. (Use the noun form of the bold word and rewrite the sentence)
Ans:
(v) Ajay is seemingly the best boy. (Use the verb form of the bold word and rewrite the sentence)
Ans:
(w) The sun gives us heat and light. (Change the voice of the sentence)
Ans:
(x) No other Indian cricketer is as tall as Ishant Sharma. (Turn into superlative degree)
Ans:
(y) Gold is one of the most precious metals. (Turn into positive degree)
Ans:
(z) Anjan's mother said, "Your father has left for Mumbai." (Change the mode of narration)
Ans:

(a) were / King Lakho / they / the / of / honoured guests Ans: (b) the hunting / forbidden / he had / flamingoes / of Ans: 3. Combine the following sentences as instructed: (a) God is Almighty. He is Supreme. (Join using both and) Ans: (b) Robert is not a dishonest boy. He is not a liar. (Join using neither nor) Ans: Section — B (Comprehension Test — 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And ithe thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: (a) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus (b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of —	2. Rearrange the words and phrases below to form meaningful s	sentences: [1×2=2]
(b) the hunting / forbidden / he had / flamingoes / of Ans: 3. Combine the following sentences as instructed: [1×2=2] (a) God is Almighty. He is Supreme. (Join using both and) Ans: (b) Robert is not a dishonest boy. He is not a liar. (Join using neither nor) Ans: Section — B (Comprehension Test — 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand one not without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: (a) The courtiers envied — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus (b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of —	(a) were / King Lakho / they / the / of / honoured guests
Ans: 3. Combine the following sentences as instructed: (a) God is Almighty. He is Supreme. (Join using both and) Ans: (b) Robert is not a dishonest boy. He is not a liar. (Join using neither nor) Ans: Section — B (Comprehension Test — 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: (a) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus (b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of —	Ans:	constant and the second section (a)
(a) God is Almighty. He is Supreme. (Join using both and) Ans: (b) Robert is not a dishonest boy. He is not a liar. (Join using neither nor) Ans: Section - B (Comprehension Test - 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] (a) The courtiers envied — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus (b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of —	(b) the hunting / forbidden / he had / flamingoes / of
(a) God is Almighty. He is Supreme. (Join using both and) Ans: (b) Robert is not a dishonest boy. He is not a liar. (Join using neither nor) Ans: Section — B (Comprehension Test — 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] (a) The courtiers envied — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus	Ans:	Tobas vice team il (a)
Ans: (b) Robert is not a dishonest boy. He is not a liar. (Join using neither nor) Ans: Section - B (Comprehension Test - 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] (a) The courtiers envied — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus	3. Combine the following sentences as instructed:	[1×2=2]
Section — B (Comprehension Test — 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] (a) The courtiers envied — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus	(a) God is Almighty. He is Supreme. (Join using both and)
Ans: Section - B (Comprehension Test - 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] (a) The courtiers envied — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus		708 A
Ans: Section - B (Comprehension Test - 15) 4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] (a) The courtiers envied — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus	(b) Robert is not a dishonest boy. He is not a liar. (Join using neither	r nor)
4. Read the following passage and answer the questions below: When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: (a) The courtiers envied — i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus (b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of —	Ans:	the braziletonikez
When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And if the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus	2 1110.	Ans:
When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And if the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus	Section - B (Comprehension Test - 15)
When Christopher Columbus returned to Europe after discovering America, the King and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the courtiers jealous. The made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have discovered America by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the royal table, he overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He wanted to teach them a lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make an egg stand on end without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Columbus then took the egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On seeing how easily Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that; we could have done ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you, but it did not. And it the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the Atlantic had occurred to any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did." A. Pick the correct answers in the following sentences: [1×4=4] (a) The courtiers envied— i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus (b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of—		Farmeliner
 (a) The courtiers envied – i) the King of Spain iii) the Queen of Spain iiii) Columbus (b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of – 	and Queen of Spain gave him many honours. This made some of the made fun of his great achievement by saying that anyone might have by simply sailing West. One day, when Columbus was dining at the overheard some of the courtiers making fun of his discovery. He was lesson. He took an egg from the table and asked if anyone could make without it falling over. Many courtiers tried, but none succeeded. Co egg himself, chipped one end and made it stand up quite easily. On so Columbus did it, the guests said, "Why, anyone could have done that ourselves!" "Exactly," said Columbus, "if the thought had struck you the thought that there might be a continent on the other side of the A any of you, you would have sailed west and discovered it, as I did."	e courtiers jealous. They e discovered America royal table, he nted to teach them a ke an egg stand on end blumbus then took the seeing how easily at; we could have done i u, but it did not. And if atlantic had occurred to
i) the King of Spain ii) the Queen of Spain iii) Columbus (b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of –		[1×4=4]
(b) The courtiers laughed at the great achievement of –
	I) the ising of Spain) Columbus
) The Queen of Spain

(c)	Columbus asked the courtiers –
	i) to stop their talking nonsense
	ii) to stand up on the table
	iii) to make an egg stand up on end
(d)	Columbus overheard the jesting remarks of the courtiers when he was dining -
	i) in the king's Palace iii) at a hotel iii) at a restaurant
B. (a)	Complete the sentences by taking information from the above passage: [1×3=3] The King and the Queen of Spain honoured Columbus greatly because
(b)	Columbus wanted to teach the courtiers a lesson because
(c)	The courtiers were jealous of Columbus because
C.	Find statements or expressions from the text to show that the following are true: $[2\times2=4]$
(a)	Some of the courtiers of Spain were jealous of Columbus' discovery of America.
Ar	s:
(b)	The King and the Queen of Spain were glad at Columbus's discovery of America.
Ar	is:
D.	State whether the following statements are true or false: $[1\times4=4]$
(a)	The King of Spain did not reward Columbus for his discovery.
(b)	The courtiers failed to make the egg stand on end.
(c)	Columbus taught the courtiers a good lesson.
(d	Columbus took an exception to what the courtiers said about him.

Section - C (Writing - 20)

5. Develop the following points into a story in about 120 words and add a title for this: [10]

iii) at a restaurant

Points: A dishonest shopkeeper – gives less weight to customers – once caught – customer demands explanation – "you have to carry less weight" – customer pays less money – shopkeeper asks for the reason – "you have to count less"

		[10]
		They are still
		I regressed to the beadmester to ) Rekha always appears
		Give the apposite of the following
	(b) Belief:
) Conceal:
the bracketstaliseded
		Your handwriting is
		They are still busy in making
		i) Bunty gave me(sensities virigies pressions for the tollowing g one who cats vegetables only:
		one who eats vegetables only: one who is all powerful:
	past precions meials. (Aumo
	ped piccio s rockis i como	one who eats vegetables only: one who is all powerful: the science of plants and trees:

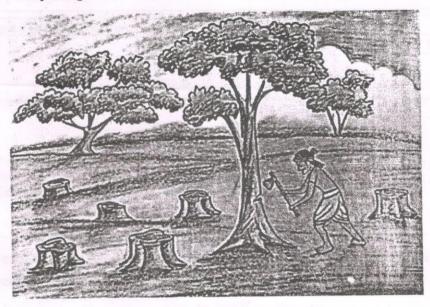

Section - D (Vocabulary - 25)

a)	[01]	(fortunately) she lost her father in the mishap.
(b)	They are still	. (mature)
		(consider) the case.
		. (cheer)
	Give the opposite of the following wo
(a)	Admire:	(b) Belief:
(c)	Conceal:	(d) Major:
9.	Fill in the blanks with the most appr	opriate words given in the brackets: [1×4=4]
(a)	Ahmed has been cured of his	. (disease / decease)
	Your handwriting is
(c)	They are still busy in making	(marry / merry)
	Bunty gave me
		ions for the following group of words: [1×4=4
(a)	incapable of being read:
(b)	one who eats vegetables only:	ed on quite entry the sound have easily
(c)	one who is all powerful:	a dimiglic list at loca you, and it did not And if ) the science of plants and trees:
	. Use verb form of the following word
		Sentence:

(b)	courage: Sentence:
12.	Work out the nominal compounds below. One has been done for you as example: A ceremony relating to marriage = Marriage ceremony
(a)	A statue made of gold:	MAN THE PARTY AND THE STREET
(b)	A dog for keeping watches:
(c)	A jam created by traffic:
13.	Give the synonym of the following words:	[1×2=2]
(a)	Finish:(b) Calm:

14. Study the picture below and describe it in about 100 words:

[10]

One has been done	compounds below.
		:elqmaze-

A ceremony relating to marriage = Marriage ceremony

- (a) A statue made of rold:
 - b) A dog for keeping watches:
 - (c) A jam created by traffic:
- 3. Give the synonym of the following words:
- a) Finish: pp. (b) Calta at a common of the common of the

Section - E (Picture Description - 10)

4. Sindy the pitture below and describe it in about 100 words; and he was [10]

2024 (VII) - 9 of Thi: